

Release form

Graham Miller and Photohonesty is committed to challenging thinking around disability. It uses a combination of photographs, video footage, written word and audio recordings in different ways such as books, magazine articles or digitally in websites and social media etc. We also work with others who share common aims and occasionally supply images to them to support material that they produce. We always do what we can to control copyright and to make sure that images when supplied or used by us are presented in a sympathetic context. Sometimes payment is received for use of images which is then used to subsidise further work.

I agree that I have no rights to the Photograph(s) and associated materials and that all rights to the Photograph(s) and materials belong to the Photographer and Assigns. I acknowledge and agree that I have no further right to additional Consideration or accounting, and that I will make no further claim for any reason to the Photographer and/or assigns. I agree that this release is irrevocable, worldwide and perpetual, and will be governed by the laws of Scotland.
